Breakout Session Descriptions: Participants will be able to choose 3 sessions or 2 sessions if session A (2 hour double session) is chosen.

THURSDAY, September 30

A.	Simplifying the Process: Data Driven Decision Making in Working with Students with Autism This will be an interactive and discussion based session that will focus on data collection and ongoing data driven decision making. This will be a double session during breakout sessions 2 and 3. Presenter: Naomi B. Swiezy, Ph.D., HSPP; Clinical Director: Christian Sarkine Autism Treatment Center; Program Director: HANDS in Autism, Riley Hospital for Children and IU School of Medicine
B.	Handling Employee Misconduct, Abuse, and Incompetence Learn more about the required documentation, complaint investigation process, reporting requirements, and termination procedures you must have in place to avoid costly mistakes and prevent litigation. Presenters: Susan Traynor Chastain and Karen Glasser Sharp (Bose, McKinney and Evans).
C.	Applied Behavioral Analysis: Ethical Expectations for BCBAs For those who become board certified behavior analysts (BCBA), there are very specific ethical standards that all are expected to adhere to. In this session, attendees will learn these ethical standards and be provided examples of each standard. Presenter: Cathy Pratt, Ph.D., BCBA, Indiana Resource Center for Autism, Indiana Institute on Disability and Community
D.	Hot Off the Press: 2010 Decisions that Impact You Now This session will cover recent court, hearing and complaint decisions and the impact of these decisions on special education in Indiana. Presenters: Andrew A. Manna and Seamus Boyce (Church, Church, Hittle & Antrim)
E.	Findings, Correction of Noncompliance, and Determinations Discussion of current trends and practices in regards to how “Findings” are made, “Correction of Noncompliance” is verified, and the status of the pending “Determinations” process. Presenters: John Hill and Ryan Brown, Educational Specialists, Division of Differentiated Learners, Special Education, Indiana Department of Education.
F.	IEP Medicaid Reimbursement and the Status of Medicaid Administrative Claiming A brief look at billing requirements and benefits of recovering federal funds for Medicaid-covered IEP services (OT, PT, Speech, Psych, Audiology, Nursing and Specialized Transportation) including information on the State’s plans to help schools recover administrative costs for helping Medicaid-eligible families enroll and access care. Presenter: Tracy Brunner, School Based Medicaid Specialist, Indiana Department of Education
G.	The Learning Connection: Review and Update A review of the Learning Connection, the Indiana Department of Education’s portal for teachers, schools, parents and students. The Learning Connection provides data, tools, and resources for school improvement. Presented by: Staff from the Office of Learning Technologies, Indiana Department of Education

H.	Addressing Reimbursed Costs for IEP Services Adding to the challenge of more restricted budgets are increasing requests for reimbursements. Requests for reimbursement include independent educational evaluations, private service providers (tutoring or therapies), unilateral placements, compensatory education or residential placements. This presentation will address the legal framework involving these requests and elements that your IEPs need to cover to anticipate and defensibility respond. Presenters: Monica Conrad & Barbra Stooksbury, Hodges & Davis
I	Shark Attack! The likelihood of getting attached by a shark is actually quite small – miniscule when compared to the odds of having students in your schools who struggle with reading and school in general. Research-based scientific studies prove that we can improve brain fitness by exercising our brains through activities that improve learning and reading. Impact students’ cognitive skills and you’ll significantly lower that population of struggling students by developing the foundational skills needed for success. Presenter – Cory Armes, Education Consultant, Scientific Learning

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
Tim Gard, CSP, CPAE

Tim Gard is someone who can find humor in almost anything - even in special education administration. While he does not think of himself as a comedian, he constantly employs the use of humor to look at life just a little differently... He calls this his Comic Vision®.

Over a decade ago, Tim answered the tremendous calling from his peers to share his Comic Vision®. They, too, wanted to understand and enjoy the benefits of laughter and good humor in their lives. Today, Tim is a recognized and leading authority in stress reduction through humor. Traveling over 150,000 miles annually, he speaks at over 100 events each year. Tim is a frequently invited guest on TV and radio talk shows where he discusses his keynote speeches, facilitation and consulting experience, as well as his own line of stress buster reminders called Tim's Tools. In addition to being a Certified Speaking Professional, Tim was given the CPAE designation in 2006 which marked his induction to the Speaker Hall of Fame.

He promises there will be no group hugs! Should you talk with him when he requests audience participation, you'll be rewarded with any one of the spectacularly unique gifts he has brought - gifts that cannot be found in the finer stores!! You will find Tim to be drop-dead funny and will laugh out loud at his rejuvenating message which will assist you in enhancing your professional performance and enthusiasm.
